CIGARETTE LAW IS VERY STRICT

Applies To All Boys Under 18 Years.

DEALERS CANNOT GIVE AWAY

Or Sell "Papers," and Boys Cannot Have Them In Their Possession.

VIOLATOR MUST BE ARRESTED

There was at least one good law passed by the recent Legislature—the anti-cigarette bill. The bill, if its provisions are carried out, will stop the use of cigarettes by hundreds of boys in their teens.

The bill is in full as follows: It shall be unlawful to sell, give away, or furnish, to any person under the age of eighteen years, any cigarette, or cigarette papers, or any other paper prepared to be filled with smoking tobacco for cigarette use.

It shall be unlawful for any person, under the age of eighteen years to smoke, or to have about his person, or premises, any cigarette or cigarette papers, or any other form prepared to be filled with smoking tobacco for cigarette use. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding five dollars.

It shall be the duty of every constable, policeman, town marshal, sheriff or his deputy when he finds any person under the age of eighteen years smoking a cigarette, or with a cigarette or cigarette paper in his possession, to immediately inquire of such person where and of whom he obtained such cigarette or cigarette paper, and upon failure of any person to give such information when requested by such officer, the officer shall arrest such person and take him before a justice or other officer having jurisdiction, to be dealt with as provided in section 2 of this act.

Every person, who shall smoke or use a cigarette or cigarettes, in any school building or any building or such parts thereof as may be used for school purposes, or upon school grounds while children are assembled there for lawful purposes, shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not less than one nor more than five dollars.

Any person, firm or corporation, violating any of the provisions of this act, where punishment is not otherwise provided, shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten dollars for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than three hundred dollars, and on failure to pay the fine and costs of prosecution, shall be required to work same out on the public roads.

WHEAT CROP TO EXCEED 100,000,000 BUSHELS

Kansas City, Mo., March 23.—"Kansas expects to harvest more than 100,000,000 bushels of wheat this year, and the crop may run to 150,000,000 bushels," said Henry Lassen, a miller of Wichita, Kan., at the opening here of the annual meeting of the Southwestern Millers' League. Millers from six states are attending the meeting. One of the topics to be discussed is a proposed protest against the 5 per cent. increase in freight rates east of the Mississippi river. The millers say if this increase goes through there will be a similar raise west of the Mississippi next.

DROVE HIS FORMER WIFE BUT NOT SO THIS ONE

Liberty, Mo., March 21.—"Lafe" Choate is no small man. Three years ago, when he became angry with his wife, he hitched her—the mother of his two chubby-faced boys—to a plow and drove her in the field with a team of mules. While the boys watched he beat her with a club.

Yet when Lafe came into the office of Judge John Stepp, at Birmingham, he looked like a fishing schooner, along side a battleship. For he had on his arm his future bride. She weighs two hundred pounds—or more. In a voice that bode no good for Lafe's future if he tried to make her plow corn, she confessed that her name was Miss Beasie Evans, of Kansas City.

The judge looked at "Lafe" and remembered the pitiful story told by his former wife of being driven about the fields in a scorching June sun, coupled with other stories of brutality. He remembered that the whole country had been aroused, and that Clay county farmers had threatened to lynch the man who stood before him. Then there was the reluctance of the woman to prosecute her husband because of their children, and finally the thirty days' sentence which the man spent in jail. A divorce followed the jail sentence.

"We want to be married, Lafe and I," Miss Evans said.

"But—but—" began the judge. "That's all right, I know all about Lafe and we want to get married."

"But he might try to make a horse of you, too," the judge protested.

"Just let him try it. If anybody's hooked to a plow I'll be Lafe."

"Lafe" said nothing.

Then, since "Lafe" seemed to be quite a different man from the brutal woman beater that he knew three years ago, and since Miss Evans seemed fully capable of carrying out her threats, the judge married the couple.

JOHNSON'S LOAN SHARK LAW IS A BIG SUCCESS

Washington, March 21.—Sweeping success has attended prosecutions by the District Government against loan sharks, under the Johnson law. To-day agreed judgments were entered in 1,000 cases of violation of the law, which was put on the books by Representative Ben Johnson, of Kentucky. Under the agreement each violator paid in $100, netting $100,000 for the District.

The Johnson law, passed as a result of the agitation of the Kentucky Congressmen some months ago, had been violated by the 1,000 loan brokers who were in court to-day. They agreed to pay $100 apiece, with the understanding that they must pay $200 and go to jail for thirty days each if the law is violated again.

This law has stopped usury in the District. Mr. Johnson says that before its enactment a rate as high as 300 per cent. in at least one instance was charged.

DEATH CAME QUIETLY WHILE SHE WAS ASLEEP

Mrs. Hettie Robinson, of Whitesville, was found dead Thursday morning between 6 and 7 o'clock, when her daughter attempted to arouse her for breakfast. She retired Wednesday night as usual, and in seeming good health, but failed to respond when called, and it was found that she was dead, though still warm. A doctor was called in the hope of reviving her, but every effort failed. Mrs. Robinson was 51 years old, and had lived in Whitesville for the past year, moving there from Maceo, where she was born and reared.

The deceased is survived by seven children who are W. H. Robinson and J. B. Robinson, of Owensboro; Mrs. F. H. Allen, of Memphis, and E. L. Clyde, Roy and Miss Alberta Robinson, of Whitesville.

A. S. of E. Notice.

The Ohio County Union of the A. S. of E. will meet at Hartford, March 27, 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m. All poultry pledges are requested to be turned in at that date and all poolers are asked to be present, as this is the regular quarterly meeting. A good attendance is desired.

S. L. STEVENS, Pres.

HENRY M. PIRTLE, Sec'y.

What Silas Got.

Sunbury, Penn., March 21.—Silas Berger, who weighs but 90 pounds, called at the office of Squire M. P. Tierney to-day and had a warrant issued for the arrest of his wife on an assault-and-battery charge.

When the woman appeared in his office the Squire saw that she weighed all of 300 pounds and had a chin that was square.

"Did you whip your husband?" asked the Squire.

"I surely did," was the reply.

"And," she continued, "I will do it again. We have six children and he earns $12 a week. Last week he got out and spent two of it, and when he came home I laid him over my knee, and, furthermore, Silas ate breakfast standing up."

OLD COAT SOLD RAGMAN CONTAINED NICE PICKUP

St. Louis, March 21.—Mrs. Sol Meyer, Jr., of this city, sold one of her husband's old coats for $2 a few days ago. She thought she had made such a bargain she told her husband about it. Then he reminded her that the old coat had been the family safety deposit vault for a long time. Last night Mrs. Meyer frantically asked the police to find the old clothes man, the old coat and jewelry valued at $1,000, which was hidden in the coat.

Following is a list of what the rag man obtained in addition to the coat for $2:

A solitaire diamond ring, 1½ carats, valued at $250.

A pearl set ring surrounded by nine diamonds, $125.

A dinner ring containing twenty-seven diamonds, $225.

A cameo ring, $25.

A pearl and diamond butterfly brooch, $75.

A gold heart, set with diamonds and pearls, $75.

A thirty-second degree Masonic pin and other lodge pins, $37.

A diamond and pearl lavalliere, with a half-carat pendant, $175.

KEPT COWS IN PARLOR AND FAMILY IN KITCHEN

Kansas City, March 21.—Because he "kept the cow in the parlor," or, rather, kept two cows there, Ever-Jelly Dandak, a Greek, 215 Delaware avenue, Kansas City, Kan., was fined $25 by Judge Brady in the Kansas City, Kan., police court. The charge was filed by W. G. McDermott, a sanitary officer.

Complaints of neighbors caused McDermott to visit the Dandak premises. Dandak earns a living by selling the milk from two cows and working at odd jobs. The cows being the chief support of Mr. and Mrs. Dandak and seven little Dandaks, stood high in the household. In fact, they occupied the front room, while the family lived in a smaller room at the back. The sanitary officer said that the family had failed to comply with his orders in regard to finding more secluded quarters for the cows. Judge Brady said that for the sake of the seven little Dandaks he would remit the fine as soon as the orders of the sanitary officer were obeyed.

FULLY HALF OF MARION GOES TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

Marion, Ky., March 21.—The Sunday School movement in this city has developed into large proportions. Fully one-half of the entire population of the city are constant attendants at various churches throughout Marion on Sunday mornings. Sunday last, out of a population of less than 2,000, there were 1,058 present, divided as follows: Southern Methodist, 440; Baptists, 124; Presbyterians, 160; Christians, 51. The two colored churches, Methodist and Presbyterian, had an attendance of 101.

WOMAN MAYOR ARRESTS HER HARBORER HUSBAND

Portland, Ore., March 21.—Mrs. John Larsen, Mayor of Troutdale, Ore., caused the arrest of her own husband yesterday on a charge of selling liquor to minors. Recently the woman mayor asked the District Attorney of Washington county to investigate alleged law violations by Troutdale saloonkeepers. When she found that evidence had been discovered against her husband she promptly swore out a warrant. Several boys testified that Larsen had sold them liquor.

RHEA CALLS IN STATE WARRANTS OF JUNE LAST

Frankfort, Ky., March 21.—State Treasurer Rhea has called in for redemption all interest-bearing State warrants issued last June. They amount to $574,000. The law, signed by Gov. McCreary exempting the warrants from taxation, it is believed will make a market for the warrants so that discounting them will not be necessary.

Rolla Newton Sent Up.

The Owensboro Inquirer says: Rolla Newton has been taken to the Eddyville penitentiary to begin his term of from one to five years for receiving stolen property. Newton was convicted on the charge of receiving wagons that were known to have been stolen from the Owensboro Wagon Company. He was in business at the time at Fordsville. The Court of Appeals affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court. Newton was taken to Eddyville by Deputy Sheriff Ben Lancaster.

BROWN TAX BILL PROVED A JONAH

Not What Citizens Of Owensboro Wanted.

BROWN WORKED HARD FOR IT

In the Legislature—Discovered Its Defects After It Was Passed.

HOPES ITS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

The Owensboro Messenger of Saturday says:

Mayor Hickman and other city officials were chagrined to learn on Friday that the city would be the loser by about $4,000 in revenue by the passage of the Brown single poll tax bill passed by the recent Legislature. It was expected that the bill would relieve citizens of the city from the payment of more than one poll tax. This purpose was accomplished. However, the further expectation that the county would be the loser in revenue was not realized, as it is provided in the bill that the city shall not assess the poll tax where it is paid to the county.

The bill in full is as follows:

"That no city of the Third class shall hereafter levy or collect a poll or capitation tax on the citizens thereof for any year in which the county in which said city may be situated shall levy or collect poll or capitation tax on the citizens of said city.

"Section 2. All acts or parts of acts, inconsistent with or in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed."

By the operation of the new law the city is precluded from collecting about 3,000 polls at $1.50 each. Of this number of polls it is estimated that one-third are those who pay no property tax. To be plain, it is estimated that one-third of the citizens of Owensboro who have heretofore contributed but $1.50 towards the support of the city government, will now be relieved of this onerous burden. Persons who do not own property will be entitled to live in the city free of charge.

Previous to the passage of the law there was but little difference in the capitation taxes in city and county. The city collected two polls of $1.50 each, while in the county the taxpayers paid two polls, one of $1.50 and another of $1. Representative Elmer Brown made his race for the Legislature upon the single plank of relieving the tax-burdened laboring man from the payment of two poll taxes.

The Mayor was in hopes that the bill had not been signed by the Governor, and began an early campaign to have citizens protest against its becoming a law, but this hope was soon dissipated, as the Governor had attached his signature to the bill.

The law can not be repealed under two years, and while it will not affect the taxes levied for the present year, it is hoped that legal action can be found that will invalidate the law.

Representative Brown is in Louisville, and in a telephone communication with the Messenger last night said he certainly hoped the measure would be declared unconstitutional. If it is not what the citizens of Owensboro want, Mr. Brown worked conscientiously for his single poll tax bill from the opening day of the Legislature until 2 o'clock of the morning the Assembly adjourned, and had not the slightest idea that there would ever be any objection raised to it.

MISS ANN ROWAN WAS A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Miss Ann Rowan, a highly respected woman of the Nuckols neighborhood, died Friday morning at 11 o'clock, at the home of her nephew, Rowan Cox, after a two week illness of pneumonia. She was born in Ohio county on March 25, 1839, and had she lived five days longer would have been 75 years old. For several years she had made her home with her nephew of the Nuckols vicinity, and with the exception of one sister, Mrs. J. W. Ford, of Hartford, is the last surviving member of her family. She had a large number of friends, who will regret to hear of her demise. She was a member of the Pleasant Hill Methodist church, with which denomination she had been affiliated since early childhood.

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Woodward's Valley Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Cashman. Interment was in the church cemetery.

CO-OPERATIVE PROGRAM OF SUNDAY SCHOOL CAMPAIGN

The Rev. Geo. A. Joplin, secretary of Kentucky Sunday School Association, will be in Ohio county next week for a tour of the whole county in Sunday School work. He will arrive at Beaver Dam on Saturday of this week, and beginning Sunday, will carry out the following arrangement:

Sunday, March 29, at Cooper's Schoolhouse, all day, Cromwell Magisterial District.

Monday, at 10 a. m. at Melbury, Presbyterian church, Rockport District.

Monday at 2:30 p. m. at Lone Star Church, Centertown District.

Tuesday at 10 a. m. at Beda, Benlah Church, Hartford District.

Wednesday at 10 a. m. at Fordsville, Christian church, Fordsville District.

Thursday at 10 a. m. at Beane-field, Baptist Church, Bartlett District.

Saturday at 10 a. m. at Narrows, Methodist Church, Sulphur Springs District.

Sunday at 10 a. m. at Rosine, Methodist Church, Rosine District.

Representatives from every Sunday School in the county will be expected to be present at the meeting most convenient, and where it is practicable, all the Sunday Schools should be represented at the meeting held in their respective districts. These are not to be considered as local meetings, but each meeting is for the benefit of the whole district in which it is held.

These meetings are especially important because they are held just at the time Sunday Schools all over the county are being organized for the ensuing summer term.

BRINGS FARMER NEARER TO CITY

Does the New Parcel Post Feature.

THE "FARM PRODUCTS POST"

Is Designed To Cheapen The Country Marketing For Urban Consumers.

APPLIES TO ONLY TWO ZONES

Washington, March 16.—Postmaster General Hurleson has amplified the parcel post by the establishment of a "farm products post," which can be utilized by farmers and truckers for the shipment of crates of butter, eggs, vegetables, dressed poultry, weighing between twenty and fifty pounds, directly from the farm to the city kitchen. The service, which was announced by the Postmaster General to-day, is provided only for the first and second zones, a distance of approximately 150 airline miles.

Under the new regulations boxes and crates, similar to those used in the express service, when packed with farm products, will be carried outside mailbags and promptly delivered to the city consumer.

The "farm products post" is created to the purpose of opening up a cheap marketing avenue between the truck gardener and the city consumer with a view to reducing the cost of the table in populous centers. Investigations show that food products for which the farmer receives $3.24 on his farm are retailed in the city for $5.55 under the present system.

It is the idea of Post-office and Agricultural Department experts, who have been studying this problem that the farmer will accept $4.25, postage prepaid, for the articles of food which he sells to the commission merchants for approximately $3.24 and for which the city consumer pays $5.55. If he does, the city consumer will save about $1.25 on every market basket costing under the old system $5.55.

The Post-office Department, in the statement, declares that the new regulations should prove a "boon to farmers and truckers." Under the old regulations the crates and boxes of farm products had to be securely packed and were limited in size so that they could be placed in mailbags.

Under the new regulations the ordinary crates used for the shipment of butter, eggs, fruits, berries, vegetables, dressed poultry and other articles by express will be accepted, provided that the maximum weight of these crates is not fifty pounds.

Packages under twenty pounds must be securely packed so that they can be handled in mail sacks with ordinary mail.

WAGON LOAD OF BOOZE INTERCEPTED ENROUTE

The Providence Enterprise says: A wagon load of "booze" consigned to Angus Johnson, colored, of this city, was intercepted on the Dixon road Friday night by Chief of

CATARRH OF THE PHARYNX.

Clearing out your throat every day, all day. That is what you have been doing for months. Possibly years. A little mucus covers the pharynx.

If you were to go to a doctor he would tell you that you have pharyngitis. If you were to look into your own throat you would find just back of the soft palate a red, lumpy, granular appearance of the back part of the throat. Pharyngitis is the doctors call it.

Perhaps he would call it, follicular pharyngitis. It causes you constant annoyance. You are always making slight disturbances when seated in an audience. Can't hold your throat still. Stringy mucus bothers you. Worse in the morning.

A-hem! A-hem! A-hem! That is the way you are going nearly all day. Sometimes in the night when you wake up. You ought to gargle your throat with salt water every morning. Cold salt water. That clears out the throat perfectly and makes it ready for treatment.

Peruna is the treatment. Begin with a teaspoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Try it for a week. You will be convinced. Of course, Peruna will not entirely relieve you in a week. That is too much to expect of any remedy. But it will benefit you so much you will be convinced. Yes, it will. It has done this many times.

Follicular pharyngitis. Big words. Almost as bad as the disease. But if you take Peruna for one month regularly, you may forget that you ever had such a disease. Then you will have a perfect right to forget the big words too.

People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

Police I. D. Morrow, who had it brought on to Providence, unloaded at the I. C. depot and reshipped to Klyman Bros. from whom it was obtained, at Evansville, Ind.

Johnson, to whom the whiskey was consigned, was arrested on the charge of bringing intoxicants into prohibition territory for the purpose of sale and was fined $65, by Judge Reynolds in the city court.

It appears that the whiskey was shipped from Evansville to Henderson by rail and brought from there in a wagon to a barn on the George Herrin place, where it was concealed until another team could be sent for it. A little bird brought the news to Chief Morrow and when Tom Haldwin, a colored teamster, went after the "wet goods" the chief was on his trail and nabbed the outfit as it started to town.

There were several cases of whiskey in the lot containing plants and quarts—about thirty gallons in all.

HARDIN COUNTY FARMERS FORM AN ASSOCIATION

One hundred farmers of Hardin county have organized under the name of Hardin County Produce Association for the purpose of raising melons and other crops than tobacco. Those already members of the association have pledged 109 acres, and new members are being added. The association is going at the matter in a businesslike way and is sure to make a success of it. The association will have monthly meetings so its members may keep in close touch with each other, and that they all may know at least once a month what may be the outlook for the crops. The constitution and by-laws provide a penalty of $25 to be imposed upon any member who sells any of his crops pledged to the association to any buyer who does not purchase through the association. The association will contract with the dealers to receive shipments in carload lots, and no sales will be permitted outside the association, as such might interfere with billing carload orders.—[Owensboro Inquirer.]

The Forty Year Test.

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world-wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers. (Advertisement)

LESS DANGER OF STRIKE AMONG COAL MINERS

The Central City Argus says:

The fact that the joint scale committee of the coal operators and the miners in District 23 adjourned without reaching any settlement is not an indication that no settlement can be reached before April 1. The joint committee did not discuss the scale because the larger committee with jurisdiction over the entire competitive field has not yet reached any agreement. This larger committee will meet again on the 15th of this month and if an agreement is then reached, District 23 will hold another meeting before April 1.

Considerable uneasiness about a strike has prevailed in this vicinity but the indications that there will be a shut-down are hardly as strong now as they were a few weeks ago. The continued cold weather is reviving mining and it is believed by many that an agreement will be reached. Of course everybody hopes so, as the business activity of this vicinity depends very largely upon the employment of the miners and it would mean much to everybody to have the mines running every day.

Making a Thorough Test.

Oil wells are now being sunk at near distances east and south of Owensboro and there seems to be well-directed energy pushing them. The determination to find an extended pool in this locality seems fixed. Its location is no mere guesswork, is the conclusion of the best oil and gas talent now employed in the gas and oil fields. If the treasure be not found at some interval between Fenley, in Hancock county, and Utica, in Daviess, or at either of these terminal drilling points, at all of which the expectations are most sanguine, the rigs will probably be moved farther west along the river. It seems certain that the present operations will make a "find" in the present attempts, or determine for a certainty whether it is possible or not.—[Owensboro Messenger.]

How It's Measured.

"Is he rich?"
"Say, he's so rich that his neighbors have all begun to tell what he'd do for charity if they had his money."

THE MAIN THEORY OF VACCINATION

Declared To Be Dangerous
In Practice.

IT REVIVES LATENT DISEASES

And Makes the Patient More Subject To Them Than Before.

IT BRINGS OUT TUBERCULOSIS

The whole theory of vaccinations and serums is wrong. It insures us against catching one disease only to make us doubly liable to catch others, particularly tuberculosis. This is the startling warning just given out by Lieutenant Colonel Charles E. Woodruff, retired from the United States Army Medical Corps, one of the greatest sanitary authorities in the world.

Most human beings have a natural resistance to tuberculosis and with ordinary good fortune and attention to our food and surroundings we can fight off the white plague till old age or some other cause brings us to the grave.

Vaccination gives us immunity for awhile at least, against some one specific disease, such as typhoid or smallpox. This would be very well indeed if we did not have to pay for it by losing part at least of our natural immunity to tuberculosis.

In quoting other authorities Dr. Woodruff said in a recent paper:

"Le Tellie tells me that all serums and vaccines will cause incipient cases of tuberculosis to get worse. Dr. C. H. Spooner, and Louis and Combe, assistants to Vincent at the Val de Grace in Paris, have noticed that anti-typhoid vaccines bring out any latent or chronic disease, particularly tuberculosis. The latter states that vaccine acts like tuberculin, and that they have thus been able to detect active tuberculosis when the condition was not suspected before the inoculation."

"Chantierre, of Paris, informs me that he has seen two cases of rapid tuberculosis develop a few days after anti-typhoid vaccination, and he warns particularly against using it where tuberculosis is suspected."

It has long been observed in all countries where statistics are completely kept, that a typhoid epidemic is always followed by one of tuberculosis. This was known long before the days of serums, vaccinations and antitoxins. It was guessed quite naturally that the ravages of typhoid weakened the system to such an extent as to lay open to invasion by the germ of consumption. Where weakness lay, has not recently been understood.

Scattered about the body are numberless glands, little and big. Some of them secrete fluids which can be recognized, like the tear glands in the eye and the saliva glands in the mouth.

There are a greater number which have no ducts leading to the surface of cavities of the body and therefore whatever they secrete goes directly into the blood itself. A few of the larger, more important ones, are partially understood.

These glands have other places, apparently located near the kidneys, and secrete a substance called adrenalin, which controls the heart, and the blood pressure. If these glands cease operating the adrenalin supply in the blood stream is soon used up. The result is a rapid collapse of the whole circulation, ending with stoppage of the heart and death.

These glands have other duties apparently connected with fighting infectious diseases. When a person is sick from any germ disease the suprarenals are called upon to overwork, manufacturing at least part of the antitoxins which nature supplies as antidotes to the poison of the microbes.

Overwork produces exhaustion of the glands, so that after a severe fever, like typhoid, a patient's glands are in feeble condition. Not only are they unable to rally with their old strength to meet a new germ attack, but the regular task of producing adrenalin becomes a burden to them.

Sudden deaths from so-called "heart failure" after the crisis is passed, the fever gone and the patient obviously on the road to health, are as common as they are perplexing. The reason for these "heart failures" during convalescence is now known to be exhaustion of the suprarenal glands, which have usually, after winning the battle against the microbes, failed in their other tasks of supplying adrenalin to make the heart beat.

Diphtheria probably throws the most violent strain of all on these glands, but fortunately it is not so prolonged as in typhoid.

Vaccines and serums have their effect by stimulating in the body the conditions which are found in the disease they are meant to prevent. The suprarenal and other glands are deceived and set to work furiously in a life-and-death effort to produce antitoxins. These antitoxins give the body immunity against the real disease at almost as great cost in exhaustion of the glands.

This is why serums and vaccinations are followed by increased death rate, by tuberculosis and other disease. It is suspected that the recent increase in cancer, as well as the grip tuberculosis has on the modern human race, is largely the result of the world-wide vaccination against smallpox.

If this theory is correct it is evident that no person with weakness of the heart or any inclination toward tuberculosis should risk his health to the great strain of vaccination or serum treatment as preventives of disease.

A patient who has already contracted a disease such as diphtheria may wisely use serum, because it is a choice between the greater evil and the disease itself and the lesser one is the serum.—[New York American.]

Too often failure succeeds success.

AFTER SICKNESS OR OPERATION

It is a pathetic mistake to accept drugs or alcoholic mixtures when nature craves nourishment to repair the wasted body and restore the vigor of health.

For forty years the best physicians have relied on the wholesome predigestion nourishment in Scott's Emulsion which is totally free from alcohol or opiates.

Scott's Emulsion sharpens the appetite—renews blood—nourishes nerves—strengthens bones and restores the courage of health to make life bright. Scott's Emulsion sets in action the very forces that promote health; it is pure, rich strength.

Entered at the Hartford post-office as mail matter of the second class.

Mexican bull fighters may be brave, fearless and all right in their profession, but we have seen some cows we don't believe they'd dare try to milk.

Let it be recorded that for once, anyhow, in his life, (anent the insurance bill) Gov. McCreary formed and expressed a definite opinion—and stuck to it.

We have an idea that we are going to have a clean-up day in Hartford this spring. We believe Mayor Her is going to order one—and see that it is observed.

Heeding the spirit of the Cabinet to which he belongs, Secretary McAdoo seems to have been indulging in some "watchful waiting." But he didn't have to wait long.

Perhaps one thing the matter with the tobacco question is that some fellows are agitating the subject who couldn't tell one end of a tobacco worm from the other if the worm was sitting still.

The Central City Argus prints a very good map of Muhlenberg and parts of surrounding counties, aimed mainly to show the route and advantage of the new interurban line for Central City, Greenville and Brakesboro. Just why the map maker should have left out the M., H. & E. railroad is hard to conjecture, as this line will probably be of some benefit to the proposed interurban.

There is no excuse for the existence of a sheep-killing dog. Even the best of the dog species are non-producers from an economical line, but the difference between dogs generally is so marked that it is easy to distinguish the worthless from the other kind. Sheep are too valuable a product to be ruthlessly slain, even if a bonus is paid. Every sheep-killing dog should be killed upon the slightest suspicion of guilt.

Evidently there is something the matter with Kentucky as regards her increase in population. During the decade from 1900 to 1910 the State's population increased only six and six-tenths per cent. All the Southern States surpassed us in population gain, some of them outstripping us away yonder. In all the forty-eight States of the Union only four States showed a lower percentage of gain than Kentucky. Evidently the birth rate is not entirely to blame for this, but the lack of immigration to within our borders is also one cause. This is a rather serious state of case. What is the remedy?

There should be no politics whatever in the assembling and actions of a deliberative body called a Legislature. True, men are elected upon political tickets to sit in these bodies, but once they are present and in conference, politics should be forgotten. These men are elected to represent the whole people of their respective counties or municipalities, and they should work solely for the interest of those whom they are chosen to serve. It is a reflection upon the integrity and honesty of any member to suppose that his actions would be guided by mercenary, selfish or political motives.

Looked at from the people's side of the matter, the fire insurance companies haven't much of a kick coming over the new legislative bill. Friends of the bill aver that it will not change the rates, and that it is fair for all concerned. It is in line with laws and enactments of other States. For years the fire insurance companies operating in Kentucky have exercised arbitrary powers over those having property to insure, fixing their own rates and usually paying just what suited them in case of a fire, unless sued by policy-holders. Their intolerant and grasping attitude is responsible for much of the antagonism manifested towards them. They had arrived at a point where they needed a little correcting. Reviewing their own history, they should abide.

When Cat's Away Mice Will Play. Various Progressives are confident that unruly Mexicans are merely taking advantage of the absence of Colonel Roosevelt.—(Washington Star.)

Affecting Schools.

The new school act provides for 7 months' school when the per capita reaches $4.75 and for 8 months when it reaches $5. The State adoption of text books carried. A commission, composed of the Governor, a representative of the State University and each normal school, and seven men appointed, one from each Appellate district, by the Governor, compose the commission to choose text books for all the common schools.

A BELOVED YOUNG MAN PASSES TO SPIRIT LAND

Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin, one of Hartford's most respected and beloved young men, passed quietly away at death's summons at the hour of midnight Saturday. For over a year he had been ill and confined to his residence from tuberculosis. All available remedies to save the slowly dying man were employed, but with little avail. His vitality, however, was wonderful, and his strength of spirit and hopeful nature carried his existence beyond the expectation of many of his friends.

For nearly a week prior to his death he had been unconscious most of the time, frequently delirious. He was attended closely by numerous friends, his family and relatives. About an hour before his death, however, he seemed to catch a glimpse of the shadow land, ever guarded by death's grim specter, and to realize that his departure was at hand. His mind was clear and his perception bright as of yore. He called his family and friends to his bedside and bade each a personal and affectionate goodbye. He did not forget the Masonic grip to those of the membership who were present. Then he sank back on his pillow with an apparent sigh of resignation and in a short while had passed into that dreamless sleep of the ages.

Mr. Griffin was 35 years old at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and three children, numerous relatives and friends to remember his splendid young manhood, his noble and open-hearted traits of character and to ponder that ever regretful question as to why death so often intervenes at the very apex of life's all too brief career. He was a member of the Methodist Church and his religion was his best consolation in his last suffering hours.

Funeral services were at the family residence Monday at 10 o'clock. Pastor Napier made a beautiful talk and touching songs were sung. At Mr. Griffin's request the Maccabees, his lodge friends, had charge of the ceremonies. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery. There were many beautiful floral offerings—springtime flowers that seemed to speak of a renewal of earth's old life just as one of her sojourners, after a brief stay, was being gathered to her bosom's tomb.

GOVERNMENT OPERATION SEEMS VERY GOOD THING.

There is some objection to the Government owning railroads in Alaska on the ground that it means socialism. But if government ownership of public utilities constitutes socialism then this nation has been experiencing it all through its history for it has always run the postal business and is now engaged in express and banking business of its own.

In truth the bogey of socialism, has lost its terror for most people who believe that if the Government can own and run a public business in the interest of the public better than can or does a private enterprise or a trust, it has a right so to do.

This principle of government ownership of public utilities is even carried much farther in some monarchial countries than it is in our own. In Germany railroads and other lines of business are government owned. In Great Britain the government owns and runs the telegraphs and telephones, and also insurance, and yet all classes seem to be pleased with the result. Most people will hold that a country, especially Alaska, should not be controlled by monopolists who would develop it for their own benefit only, but by the Government, which by so doing would work for the public good and keep the land and its resources from being exploited by greedy trusts.

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT DEFEATED IN SENATE

Vote Was 35 To 34 Favoring Bill—Two-Thirds Vote Necessary.

Washington, March 21.—Woman suffrage advocates lost their fight in the United States Senate for a resolution proposing an amendment to the Federal Constitution giving women the ballot.

The vote was 35 for the measure to 34 against it, a two-thirds affirmative vote being required for passage, and when it was all over, suffragist leaders jubilantly pointed to the majority of one as conclusive proof that their cause had scored a triumph in defeat, and was immeasurably stronger than its opponents had ever been willing to concede.

This action, following weeks of debate on the floor of the Senate, during which many leaders in the suffrage movement pleaded for postponement of the final vote, marked the climax of a spirited campaign launched here the day before the inauguration of President Wilson.

Immediately after the vote, Senator Shafroth, of Colorado, sought to introduce a new resolution for a Constitutional amendment requiring each State to vote on granting suffrage to women, upon petition from five per cent. of its voters. The Senate went into executive session before the Senator could get the floor, however, and the resolution will be offered later.

The resolution defeated was the first introduced in the present Congress. It was presented by Senator Chamberlain, of Oregon, and the Women Suffrage Committee later authorized Senator Ashurst to report it favorably.

Though otherwise the vote virtually was non-partisan, the Southern Senators, all Democrats, lined up almost solidly against the amendment. They contended it would complicate the negro question in the States. Of the Southerners, only Senators Russell, of Louisiana; Sheppard, of Texas, and Lea, of Tennessee, voted for the resolution.

Senator Vardaman led a movement among the friends of woman suffrage in the South to repeal the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution, by which the States are prohibited from denying the right to negroes to vote. With the negro question removed, he said, he favored the granting of suffrage to women. His proposal was defeated by 49 to 19, and a proposition by Senator Williams to give the ballot to white women only was defeated by 44 to 21.

Consolidated Growers Met.

As announced in The Herald last week, the Consolidated Tobacco Growers' Association met in court hall, Hartford, last Saturday with a large crowd in attendance. Mr. Bradley Wilson arrived on the 1:16 train and came direct to court hall, where he was greeted by a large number of tobacco growers.

After an hour and a-half speech from Mr. Wilson, on motion the meeting went into secret executive session for the transaction of such business as might come before the body.

Much interest was manifested throughout the meeting.

UNEMPLOYED TAILOR

WHO NEVER SAW A COW

Asks $50 For Month's Work On a Farm—Dealing With Workless Men.

Fonda, N. Y., March 21.—Fifty of the seventy unemployed New Yorkers, who came here yesterday as the first installment in Governor Tillynn's campaign to place the city's workless people on upstate farms, were lodged to-day in the village engine house. Only 20 of the 70 arrivals accepted offers of employment with farmers, although the wages offered were those generally paid to farm hands here.

The 50 who are idle are dependent on the townspeople for shelter and food.

The neighborhood farmers do not appear enthusiastic over their new help, as the men are absolutely ignorant of farm work.

Then men demand $45 a month and maintenance, while the farmers offer only $20 for men with no experience and $25 for those who have worked on farms before. A tailor, who had never seen a cow or live fowl, was willing to become a farmer for $50 a month, $25 of this in advance. He failed to convince any prospective employer. Several others were willing to work, but could not get up before 9 a. m.

Deputy State Commissioner of Agriculture C. W. Lammom, who was in charge of the men, would not say this morning what would be done with those who did not secure work. Fonda residents are fearful that they will be left here. The men are getting restless.

Company H, the local military organization, will have its eighth annual Federal inspection here at the armory on next Sunday night.
Capt. Hearn, of the 9th U. S. Inf., accompanied by Col. Henry, of Hopkinsville, will be inspection officers.
Quite a number of young recruits have recently enlisted and the Company roster is nearly complete.
Lieut. Shuman reports that everything will be in readiness for a credible inspection.

A series of meetings was begun at the Baptist Church here last Sunday, conducted by Rev. A. S. Pettie, of Owensboro. Rev. C. T. Brook-shire, of the Seven Hills Baptist Church, Owensboro, has charge of the singing. Rev. Pettie is a forceful, eloquent preacher and has a very convincing way of presenting the gospel. Large crowds are attending and much interest prevails.
The meetings will continue until further notice, beginning at 2:30 and 7:15 p. m. promptly each day.

Mr. Estlin D. Thomas and Miss
Corinne D. Woodward were married Sunday night at seven o'clock at the residence of Rev. R. D. Bennett, the ceremony being performed by Rev.
Bennett. The wedding was rather a surprise to the many friends of this popular young couple, as it was so quietly transacted. The groom is a son of Mrs. Sallie Thomas and head salesman in Her & Black's grocery store. His bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T.
Woodward, and a very accomplished young lady. They both have the very best wishes of a wide circle of friends.

Mrs. Wilson Operated On.

Dr. Samuels, of Louisville, assisted by Drs. J. W. Taylor and E. W.
Ford, of Hartford, performed a rather intricate and serious operation upon Mrs. Judge Jno. H. Wilson at her residence on Union street late yesterday afternoon.
The train being more than an hour late Dr. Samuels did not arrive in Hartford until late in the afternoon and at the hour of going to press the operation had not been completed.

County Board of Education.

There was an interesting and busy session of the County Board of Education at Superintendent Ozna
Shults' office yesterday. The members present were: Division No. 1,
Oscar Turner; Division No. 2, T. J.
Brooks; Division No. 3, Ira Bozarth;
Division No. 4, H. O. Awtry; Division No. 5, E. G. Austin; Division No.

REGAINED LOST MIND— FORGETS EARLY CAREER

Puzzling Experience Of Dual Personality Lived By Philadelphian.

Philadelphia, March 21.—In the strange case of Prof. M. W. Harrington, psychologists have found the most puzzling riddle of a dual personality that has been brought into public notice in many years.

Prof. Harrington to all intents and purposes has lived one life, finished it, then entered upon another life at the opposite pole of human temperament, habit and thought.

The true story of this weird circumstance was told by the Professor's wife, who is living in Lansdale a suburb of this city.

Prof. Harrington is now nearing 70 years of age. Until eight years ago he was greatly interested in mathematics, natural science and educational pursuits. He was home-loving, interested in political economy, zealous for public service and intensely practical.

Six years ago he disappeared and a few days later an unidentified man was found mumbling on a bench in a public park in Trenton, N. J. He did not know who he was or whence he had come and was sent to an asylum. Months afterward he was identified by Mrs. Harrington as her husband.

As the years sped on the Professor regained the faculty of normal thought and then it was discovered that he mentally was not the same man at all.

To-day he is in New York earning a handsome income as a musician. He detests political economy. He loves music and plays many instruments so well that he ranks among the foremost. He is no longer a home-lover but prefers to be about in the gay life of the studio; he is not practical; he spends all he receives, and that is a great deal, his wife says.

And he does not remember one jot of his old life, he says, but has a dim, hazy recollection that his wife is something to him.

BIG LAWSUIT OVER LAND NOW OCCUPIED BY TOWN

Pikeville, Ky., March 16.—A suit has been instituted in the United States District Court at Catlettsburg involving 200 acres of land lying in the heart of the mining town of Jenkins, Letcher county, the home of the Consolidation Coal Company. This property is at present held by the Consolidation, and the land and mining improvements thereon are valued at more than $1,000,000. They are said to include the costly power station, several office buildings and part of the large dam, which is one-half mile long, and was constructed two years ago at enormous cost.

The action was brought by Mrs. Nancy Addington, of Jenkins, who claims title to the property through the will of her father, Solomon Bentley, who before his death was a heavy holder of mineral lands in Letcher county, and the present holders claim title to it by deed. Chase & Daugherty, of Grundy, Va., and Robert L. Miller, of Pikeville, are attorneys representing Mrs. Addington's claim.

SLIGHT INSIGHT INTO TROUBLE WITH CHURCHES

In the March Woman's Home Companion, Bruce Barton writes an article entitled, "Why Fifty Women go to Church." Last month he published an article entitled, "Why Fifty Women do not go to Church." He has interviewed several hundred representative women living in widely different localities and asked them for a frank expression of opinion. A woman tells, as follows, what she thinks is the real trouble with the church:

"I suppose the real trouble with our church is that it is struggling to adapt itself to a changed community life. For all the years of its earlier existence it was the sole means of social intercourse, the only social center, the only clearing-house of community life. People came to it gladly on Sunday, not merely for the inspiration that it gave but because it afforded them an opportunity to meet each other, and to visit together after the morning service. Now there are so many other activities that bring them together; transportation is so improved and communication so easy that this great motive for church attendance has lost its power. Moreover, the sermon is no longer the sole means of intellectual enlightenment. Every present day sermon must put itself into competition with a score of magazine articles that have been brought into the community during the week, with the daily papers, and the great resources of the public libraries. It is no wonder that church attendance has dropped off; but my strong belief is that the need of the community for the church is so vital that it will never pass out of our life. It must readjust itself; I stand loyal to it because I hope to help it work out that readjustment."

No Money in Trashy Tobacco.

Some of our tobacco growers have learned that cheap, trashy tobacco that sells for 2 or 3 cents a pound had better be left in the field instead of taking it to the barn to be cured and stripped. The fees for selling it are the same as if it brought 20 cents a pound. The labor preparing it for sale and getting it to the market, and the cost of selling it, amounts to more than what is received for it. The man who "fools" with 2 or 3-cent tobacco had better leave it for fertilizer on the ground where it grew. (Shelbyville Record.)

A Beacon Light of Influence.

As typical of the successful Christian village school in Mexico, the work of the Miraflores Institution may be cited. Its enrollment this year is 339 boys and girls, under the care of eight teachers. The number of students alone speaks well for the influence of the school. It may truly be called the beacon light of the town. It invariably takes the lead in all patriotic and social festivities, as well as in movements for civic and moral improvement.

Have of New Tariff.

Two New Jersey worsted mills are enlarging their plants. One in Ohio is increasing its capital from $3,000,000 to $10,000,000. All the woolen and worsted mills of North Adams, Mass., are running full, with orders ahead. Such is one day's news of the havoc wrought by free wool and a tariff on woolens as low as 35 per cent. She murmured to her maid;
'I'll raise your wages and agree
To have your dentist paid."

"I'll let your beau come every night,
And I'll complain no more;
I'll have a rug that's nice and bright
Put on the kitchen floor."

"Oh, Jennie, will you vote for me?
I'll buy your Easter hat;
My muff will suit you to a T,
And I will give you that."

"You need not use the kitchen door,
Come in the other way;
Our washing you shall do no more,
Except for extra pay."

"Oh, Jennie, will you vote for me?
I'll make your duties light,
And if you wish, your beau shall be Made welcome every night."

The honest maid replied,

Geese Kill Boy.

Racine, Wis., March 21.—Frank Cloumlek, 10 years old, son of a goose farmer at Wind Point, north of this city, while trying to drive geese from the Lake Michigan shore to the front yard of his home just before feeding time to-day, hit the boss gander of the flock with a stick and so angered the huge bird that he turned upon the child with the rest of the geese, and five minutes after Frank was rescued by his father he died. Physicians say the boy died of convulsions, due to the attack, but his eyes had been picked out and he was otherwise badly injured. His father killed three of the birds before they would leave the child.

SHELBYVILLE WILL HOLD AN EDUCATIONAL RALLY

Shelbyville, Ky., March 16.—Preparations are making for a grand rally of the teachers and pupils in the public schools of the county in Shelbyville on Saturday, April 18. The purpose is to promote a better acquaintance between teachers, trustees and pupils of the various districts; to cultivate interest in the approaching meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association and to discuss plans of work for the next school year.

A tournament open to competition by all pupils in the county schools will be held, at which prizes will be given in various branches of school work and to the victors in the athletic games. The program for the track meet includes a 50-yard dash and hop, step and jump for pupils under 13; running high jump, running broad jump, 100-yard, 220-yard, 440-yard, 880-yard dashes and a mile relay, each to be run in two divisions with high school and grades separate; single and double potato shuffle and one-mile run for high school pupils only, and a greased pig chase for the grades only. The exercises will conclude with a declamatory contest in the evening. An attendance of 2,000 is hoped for.

AFTER COUGHING TWO YEARS

Waycross, Ga., Woman Found Relief in Vinol.

Did you ever cough for a week? Then just think how distressing it must be to have a cough hang on for two years.

Mrs. D. A. McGee, Waycross, Ga., says: "I had a very heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough which kept me awake nights for fully two years, and felt tired all the time. The effect of taking your cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is that my cough is gone. I can now get a good night's rest and I feel much stronger in every way. I am 74 years old."

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cod's livers aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

P. S.—If you have any skin trouble try Sazo Salve. We guarantee it. James H. Williams, Druggist, Hartford, Ky.

PREPARATION MADE FOR CONFEDERATE REUNION

Jacksonville Business Men Plan To Make 1914 Gathering Notable Event.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 16.—The various subcommittees of the Jacksonville Reunion Association are at work perfecting arrangements for handling the large crowd expected here May 6, 7 and 8 to attend the twenty-fourth annual reunion of the United Confederates and the nineteenth reunion of the Sons of Veterans.

Adj. Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest, of Memphis, Tenn., of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, has transferred headquarters of that association from Memphis to this city, and is organizing a large camp of Sons here. He is also organizing camps throughout the entire State for the purpose of arousing interest in the reunion and preserving and enlarging the association. Sons and Veterans in all of the towns and cities of Florida are actively at work for the reunion and much enthusiasm is manifested in the approaching meeting in this city.

DON'T MISTAKE THE CAUSE.

Many Hartford People Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

Do you have backache? Are you tired and worn out? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular? Highly colored; contain sediment? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warnings of distress. Heed the warning; don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy. Read this Owensboro testimonial: N. L. Bartlett, 620 Triplett St., Owensboro, Ky., says: "I had sharp twinges across the small of my back and other symptoms of kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family with such great success, that I tried them. I was quickly cured. Now I seldom have to use a kidney remedy."

The Reunion Committee charged with the work of securing homes for the veterans and visitors has a force of men in the field canvassing the city for rooms and board. This work is under the direction of Walter Hawkins, a prominent business man, and it is being done with systematic care. The purpose and desire are to have the accommodations and assignment divisions so perfect that no trouble will be encountered in getting the veterans and visitors from the depot to their stopping places.

The Entertainment Committee is perfecting an attractive program for the reunion week. It is the purpose of the committee to make this feature one of the greatest ever seen in the Southern States.

The city will be brilliantly lighted. The decorations will be modest. An effort is being made to hold the decorations to a strict conformity with the official colors of the Confederacy, Confederate flags and red and white bunting predominating.

In all departments the work shows good progress, and the organization will be ready for the crowds when they arrive here in May.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured. There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. Is it not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a box of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers. (Advertisement.)

With a little practice you will find it just as easy to do anything with one hand as it is with the other." "Is it?" inquired the urchin at the foot of the class. "Let's see you put your left hand in the right-hand pocket of your trousers."

Mrs. Hoyt, who became the possessor of a fortune by the death of an aunt, did not like to admit her ignorance of any subject.

One afternoon she had a call from a prominent society woman and the conversation turned upon books. "Have you read Shakespeare's works?" asked the caller.

"Oh, yes, indeed," replied Mrs. Hoyt, "all of them. That is," she added hastily, "unless he has written something very lately."

POPULATION GAIN IN KENTUCKY IS MEAGER

All the Southern States and Most of the Others Surpass It.

The Courier-Journal says: During the decade from 1900 to 1910 Kentucky's population increased only 142,741, or a gain of 6.6 per cent. In the same period Tennessee gained 8.1 per cent.; North Carolina 16.5 per cent.; Mississippi 15.8 per cent.; Alabama 16.9 per cent.; Georgia 17.7 per cent.; Arkansas 20 per cent.; Louisiana 19.9 per cent.; Texas 27.8 per cent.; Florida 42.4 per cent. All the Southern States surpassed Kentucky in population gain, some of them very largely.

Of the States which adjoin Kentucky, Missouri gained 6 per cent.; Tennessee 8.1 per cent.; Indiana 7.3 per cent.; Ohio 14.7 per cent.; Illinois 16.9 per cent.; Virginia 11.2 per cent.; and West Virginia 27.4 per cent. It will be seen that all the surrounding States increased their population at a greater per cent. than Kentucky, with the single exception of Missouri, where the rate of increase was approximately the same.

In all the forty-eight States of the Union only four States showed a lower percentage of increase than Kentucky, and these States are New Hampshire, Vermont, Missouri and Iowa. In Missouri the difference is not material. New Hampshire's gain was 4.6 per cent. and Vermont's was 3.6 per cent. Iowa was the only State to show an absolute loss of population, the decrease amounting to three-tenths of 1 per cent.

If fifty-one counties in Kentucky, according to the census figures of 1910, the rural population showed a decrease, and in one county there was a decrease in both urban and rural population. Most of the population that was gained in the decade was due to the growth of the cities, rural population increasing only about two-thirds as rapidly as the population of the State as a whole. The urban gain was at the rate of 14.9 per cent.; the rural gain only 4.2 per cent.

Kentucky ought to make a better showing than this at the next census. If we are to make any improvement we shall have to find out "What's the matter with Kentucky?" and proceed to remedy the untoward condition.

DELEGATES PRESENT FROM SEVEN COUNTIES

At Meeting Of Consolidated
Tobacco Association At Owensboro.

The Owensboro Messenger of Thursday says:

A campaign will be inaugurated at once by the Consolidated Tobacco Growers' Association, looking to a reduction of the acreage in this district. This action was taken at a district meeting, held at the city hall on Wednesday afternoon. Delegates were in attendance from Grayson, Hancock and Breckenridge counties. In addition to those from Daviess, McLean, Ohio and Muhlenberg counties. Bradley Wilson, organizer of the Consolidated, presided at the meeting.

The delegates reviewed the conditions in the district, and spoke encouragingly of the future prospects of the organization. A resolution was unanimously adopted, limiting the acreage to 10,000 hills to the land. The other tobacco organizations in the district were requested to take similar action.

A resolution was adopted calling on the organization to dispense with the services of R. M. Thompson and E. B. McKuen, who have assisted in collecting the one percent from the Consolidated growers who deliver to the loose leaf house, and in the future this work will be left to sales manager Hobson and Secretary Tompkins. In case of an unusual rash they will be permitted to call in assistants.

A report was read to the effect that 1,500,000 pounds of Consolidated tobacco had been sold at the loose leaf floor of the Owensboro Warehouse Company, in West Ninth street, at an average of $7.75. This was considered by the delegates to be a splendid average. The average for Consolidated tobacco at the Lancaster loose leaf floor will be announced as soon as it is prepared.

At the meetings to be conducted by Bradley Wilson in an effort to get the growers to reduce the acreage, there will be no pooling pledges circulated, and the meetings will be open to the public.

It was announced that within the next thirty days a rally meeting will be held in Owensboro, and members of the organization from all over the district will be invited to be present.

POSTMASTERS TO ISSUE

MARKETING BULLETINS

Giving Price List and Names Of Farmers With Stuff
To Sell.

Washington, March 23.—Post-office Department experts have worked out a trial scheme to enhance the efficiency of the "farm products" which will be officially announced in a few days. The plan involves the development of the large post-offices as "bureaus of marketing information" and the publication by the postmasters of "market bulletins."

When the "farm products" post gets to working with the opening of the vegetable season, the postal experts will take steps to have farmers and truckers, with vegetables and other table articles for sale, notify the postmaster of the nearest city weekly as to the amount of truck and the price of it which they can furnish to city customers by parcel post. When the postmaster gets the desired information he will publish a small bulletin. These bulletins will be turned over to the city mail carrier, and one will be dropped in the letter box at each home in the city.

The city consumer can look over the list, pick out the names of farmers whose prices suit him, and then write a letter for further particulars or to place an order. In this way the postal experts anticipate the opening up of trade relations between the producer and the city consumer.

One of the problems of utilizing the parcel post as a vehicle for the delivery of food products from the producer to the city kitchen has been how to get the two classes together. The above plan which will be utilized will be nothing more than an experiment. The postal experts, however, believe it will lead to the development of a better method.

For Diseases of the Skin.

Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum and barbers' itch, are characterized by an intense itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and disturbs sleep and rest. Quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It allays the itching and smarting almost instantly. For sale by all dealers. (Advertisement.)

Mine Safety Law Upheld.

The United States Supreme Court has upheld the Pennsylvania "mine safety" law, which requires coal companies to leave pillars of coal to prevent caving in. The law provides that owners of adjoining coal mines must so mine their coal as to leave coal pillars along adjoining property as supports for the roof to protect miners in cases of explosions or floods. The law gives the State Mine Inspector authority to prescribe the size and strength of the pillars.

OLATON.

March 23.—We had a quiet wedding in Olaton Saturday evening—Fitzhugh Martin to Miss Otha Keelth. Mr. Martin is one of Olaton's best citizens and superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School at this place. The bride is a beautiful and refined young lady of our town. They both should be proud of their choice. May their future life be of the very brightest type of happiness.

Mr. J. B. Stone, of Allen county, has purchased the old water mill at this place and is prepared to grind and crush your corn.

Hon. N. B. White, Representative of Ohio county, returned home Saturday. His family met him at Louisville, where they had been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.

The Legislature may have made some good laws but they will have to be tested yet. If they have the rest of the laws in the condition that the liquor and drug laws are in, it will be hard to tell when you are right. I think we have the worst drug law I have ever heard of. A doctor can give a prescription for laudanum, but he cannot sell it. Only a registered druggist can sell laudanum or opiates without a written prescription from a physician. That might do in cities, where there are numerous physicians, but out in the country a poor man has to suffer if he gets a limb broken until he can find a doctor and then give him 50c or $1.00 to get 10 cents worth of medicine. No wonder the laboring man is kept in poverty. No wonder there are so many violations of the law. It is to be hoped that our next Legislature will repeal such drug laws as we now have.

The Sunday School at the Methodist Church was well attended yesterday. An interesting program was carried out.

The Baptist Church elected their Sunday School officers Saturday, and will begin their Sunday School at once. We predict a good Sunday School at both churches. One will be held in the morning and the other in the afternoon. This will give a chance to attend two Sunday Schools each Sabbath.

Mr. James T. Felix, Hartford, is up at his farm, near here, preparing to have another crop raised.

Mr. J. A. Daniel and family, of Concord, are visiting Mr. Daniel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Daniel, and other relatives here.

Mr. Robert Arms has gone East to purchase his spring stock of general merchandise.

Miss Zelma Lyons has returned home after a month's stay in Louisville acquainting herself with the latest styles in millinery goods. She has a fine selection of spring hats.
